Notification of Rights Under FERPA for Postsecondary Institutions:

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records: The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the College receives a request for access. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by Ancilla College to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

Directory Information:

Ancilla College considers the following information directory information and may disclose this information about a student without violating FERPA regulations. Name; address; e-mail address; field of study; dates of attendance; class standing; enrollment status (full-time/part-time); degrees and awards received (hometown, state, photographs & dates received); participation in officially recognized sports and activities (high school attended, hometown, state, photographs, weight and height). If you do not want this information released, you must notify the Registrar's Office by the end of the drop/add period each semester. For complete details, see the section entitled "Right to Privacy Policy" in the current Ancilla College catalog or the current student handbook.

Student Right-To-Know:

The four-year average completion/transfer rate for first time, full-time students who entered Ancilla College during the fall semester of 2004 through 2007 is 59%. This figure includes those students who have received a degree at Ancilla within 150% (three years) of the normal time and those students who have transferred to another school. Completion rates are available in the Office of Registrar.
