

Gladys Pippenger RN

Nursing Scholarship Application

Gladys Pippenger earned her RN degree in 1928 from Home Hospital School of Nursing in Lafayette, IN. She took great pride in her profession and recognized the impact of quality nursing care on patient recovery. Health education of family, friends and peers in caring for others was demonstrated throughout her life. Mrs. Pippenger exemplified the highest standards of the nursing profession. In her loving memory, family and friends have created this scholarship in support of future nurses who exhibit a commitment to patients, the nursing profession and family.

Scholarship Criteria (applicants must meet all 3 criteria):

1. Resident of Marshall County, IN.
2. Admitted to and attending the Ancilla College Nursing Program.
