

Works Cited Format

Print Sources

Book with one author: examples

Hilo, H. D. Media Frenzie. California: Smith, 1822.

Adams, James. Build Your Own House. New York: Franklin, 1985.

Book with two authors: examples

Melvan, Amy, and Bill Williams. The Fashion Guide. 4th ed. Glen Case: Macmillan, 1942.

Smith, Samantha, and Morris Alexander. Food and Critters. Chicago: Housiur, 1995.

Encyclopedia and other reference books: examples

Alan, Robert J. "Smith, Mary." The World Book Encyclopedia. 1992.

"Indiana." Compton's Encyclopedia. 1989.

Article in a periodical: examples

"Gone in 90 Minutes." The New York Times. 14 July 2002: p21.

"Importance of Higher Education." The Ancilla Times. 21 August 2006: p1.

Electronic Sources

Encyclopedia and other publications on CD-ROM : example

Williams, Susan B. "Texas." World Book Multimedia Encyclopedia. 1995. ed. CD-ROM New York: World Book Inc., 1995.

For an article from an encyclopedia found online: example

"Serve Others." Indiana's Living Encyclopedia. Compton's Learning Company, 1986. America Online. (8 May 1986).

World Wide Web : example

Smith, William. "Species." The World: A Multimedia Tour of New Species. <http://finding_new_species.html> (18 June 1985).